Vision/Mission Statement

THE VISION of Camp Bethel is to provide a Christian based summer camp.

OUR MISSION is to equip our children to make a difference in how they handle themselves exploring real life situations through :

- Safe and Secure Camp Environment
- Chapel Services
- Academic Review (previous year)
- Exposure Social & Cultural Settings
- Adventurous Off Site Activities

We look forward to the continued move of God through our yearly themes; through worship, song, trips, hands on learning, and keeping it real dialogs .

Camp Bethel

Camp begins Monday, June 17, 2019 and runs for eight weeks: ending on Friday, August 9, 2019. Camp Bethel is designed to offer parents a safe alternative during summer vacation. We service children and youth ages 3 to 13 years. (All children must be potty trained.)

Daily Activities

We begin each day with Chapel Services. This year's chapel theme is "Obeying My God" Deuteronomy 6:5. We will explore many aspects of our Christian life and how our Campers can apply these principles to their daily lives. The day continues with structured outdoor activities, including water play; arts & crafts; academic review; videos; self defense & conflict resolution training; and some very exciting off site excursions.

Campers will also enjoy several theme days including:

"Getting to know you Barbecue"
"Wacky Tacky Day"
"Who's Your Hero Day!"
"I Love the 80's"
"Bethel Scavenger Hunt"
"Gifts & Talents Show/Closing Carnival"
And more...

Daily Meals

We provide a seasonal breakfast and lunch menu. If a meal is not desired, feel free to send a nutritional meal that your child will enjoy.

- ⇒ Breakfast is served from 9:00 a.m. — 10:00 a.m.
- ⇒ Morning snacks are served during playtime.
- ⇒ Lunch is served from 12:00 p.m. — 1:00 p.m.
